

USING CURRENT EVENTS IN CLASS

Current events are high-value topics that are of high interest to students.
Here are a few reasons to use the news in your lessons with students.

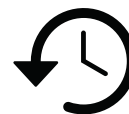

It's A Grown-up Topic.

Students believe it or not love topics that challenge them and are for mature audiences.

Reality.

It's about the "here and now".

History.

They add to our knowledge.

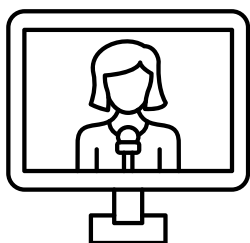

Variety.

Something For Everyone.

Practical.

Life lessons & Vocabulary.

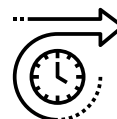

Linguistic Modeling.

Speaking and Writing demonstrations that help students reach a high standard of professional English and public speaking.

Social Studies.

Learn about the whole world.

The Future.

Will continue to follow long after class is done.

Citizenship.

Builds these vital skills.

What's your own way
of using the news in class?

It's In Our Nature.

We are all curious about the news, what's happening and how it affects us.
